

Lithosphere: solid part of Earth made up of rocks, minerals, and other elements; not including oceans.

Biosphere: part of the planet where living things can be found

Atmosphere: thin layer of gasses that surround our planet

Hydrosphere: all of the water on Earth, from oceans, to lakes, and underground water

Cryosphere: all of Earth's frozen water, including glaciers, permafrost, and sea ice